Languages and Scripts: The entire collection is recorded in English.

Administrative/Biographical History: The MCA has compiled subject files since at least 2004 and likely until 2012. Based on conversations with Montgomery County Records and Recording staff, former county archivist Lynn Frazier began creating the files when she became county archivist in 2004. It appears the archives stopped adding material to the subject files when Frazier retired in 2012. In 2017 county archivist Dallas Hanbury resumed collecting content for the collection.

Scope and Content: The subject files cover a wide array of topics concerning Montgomery and Montgomery County, Alabama. The collection is mostly made up of articles, clippings, and other sorts of published materials describing a particular topic. These files were created to aid users in their research related to the city and county of Montgomery, Alabama.
