

Appeal Form

Emergency Rental Assistance Montgomery County Program ERAMCo

Emergency Rental Assistance Montgomery County Program (ERAMCo) applicants may contest any determinations or denials based on program policy. However, federal statutory requirements may not be challenged.

Applicants may file an appeal when it is believed there is an error with program eligibility determinations, program award, initial appeal determination, among any other determinations. An applicant must submit a written appeal directly with ERAMCo within thirty (30) days of the determination. If an Applicant fails to file an appeal within the time allotted, said inaction will be deemed as an acceptance of ERAMCo determination.

Applicants who file an appeal are encouraged to provide individual facts or circumstances, as well as supporting documents to justify their petition. ERAMCo has the discretion to accept or reject new documentation based upon its relevance to the reconsideration request. Appeals may be denied or approved in whole or in part after a thorough review of the circumstances and information already included in an Applicant's file unless the Applicant submits new documentation.

ERAMCo will review and address ERAMCo Reconsideration Request within fifteen (15) days of its receipt, when feasible. Applicants will be notified of ERAMCo's determination.

To submit an appeal please complete the form on the following page and send it electronically to support@ERAMCo-ALA.com or by mail using the address at the end of this form. Please note that the appeals submitted by mail must be postmarked within the thirty (30) days of the determination.

All information maintained by a state agency is presumed to be public, subject to specific exceptions in the Alabama Public Records Law or other law. Any information provided may be disclosed to appropriate investigatory or law enforcement authorities. The applicant acknowledges that all information collected, assembled, or maintained by ERAMCo pertaining to any application, less and except records made confidential by law or court order, are subject to the Alabama Open Records Act. Under the Act, ERAMCo must provide any interested person reasonable access to all records pertaining to the subject application other than personal identity information protected by law. See, Ala Code §36-12-40.
